Professor Horn's Curriculum Vitae

Mark Walker's (a.k.a. Professor Horn) credentials read like a tenured faculty member from Hogwarts, Harry Potter's school of wizardry. The difference is his resume isn't fiction. From his humble beginnings he's been a serious student of conjuring and Punch & Judy history as he set out to learn the trade rather than just the tricks of the trade.

A leading expert on the history of magic in Baltimore City, midnight ghost shows, and Punch & Judy in America, Mark has been a guest lecturer at the Los Angeles Conference on Magic History, the Magic Collectors' Association, the New England Magic Collectors' Association and London's Magic Circle. In addition to his publications, his articles and citations have appeared in books and periodicals spanning the globe:
